RELIABILITY. FLEXIBILITY. SIMPLICITY. WE OFFER MORE THAN INSURANCE

MAPFRE Honduras – Honduras

- The Company was founded in 1954 under the name Aseguradora Hondureña, S.A. By a group of investors who set up a corporation to sell insurance and surety bonds, opening its doors in the city of Tegucigalpa to start a long trajectory of service and constant innovation. Being the first company to venture into the branches of damages such as fire and automobiles.
- In 2006, Aseguradora Hondureña, S.A. Becomes part of Grupo Mundial, one of the main financial conglomerates of Central America, acquiring a greater solidity in the insurance market at the regional level.
- In December 2009, the Spanish group MAPFRE acquires the Grupo Mundial, from this date our company is called MAPFRE Seguros Honduras SA, and we are part of one of the main insurance groups in the world, with standards of products and services that allow us to be the Global Trust Insurer.
- Our portfolio of products covers all areas of insurance activity and we have a specific competitive solution for each of our clients' needs, their properties and their assets.
- Standard & Poor's upgraded MAPFRE RE and MAPFRE GLOBAL RISKS credit ratings, which were set at "A-" to "A" with a stable outlook, three steps above the Kingdom of Spain's rating. Likewise, Standard & Poor's has raised the credit ratings of MAPFRE S.A. From "BBB" with stable outlook to "BBB +", also with a stable outlook. The rating agency maintains its expectation that MAPFRE will maintain its financial strength and its business over the next two years.
